Zuvuya, a Galactic Mayan term, represents a vast circuit of memory.
It connects the past while simultaneously linking the future—
an interdimensional thread that brings everything back to itself.

In this present moment, wherever you are,
you are standing at the center of an infinite loop:
the center of an ∞ symbol.

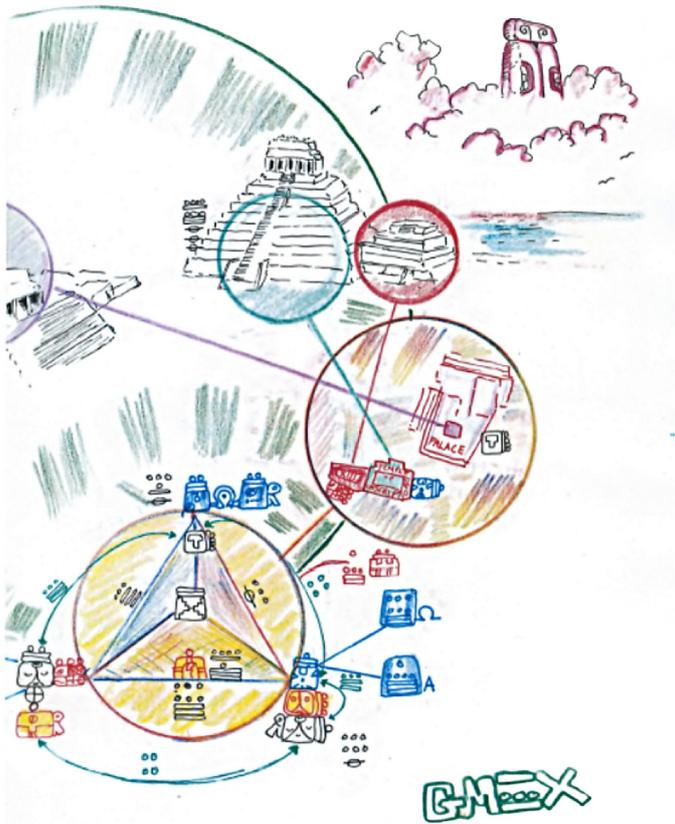

The future forms one loop,
the past forms another.

As these memory circuits continue to move, the intersection of past and future memory—the center of the ∞ — continuously defines who you are in the present moment.

Original concept inspired by Surfers of the Zuvuya:

Tales of Interdimensional Travel (2017/08)

The Birth of the Game

The world's first Chinese-English bilingual edition of the "Time Traveler's 13 Moon Synchronic Journey Board Game" has officially arrived.

The inspiration for this board game was received on June 3, 2023, (KIN 121 Red Self-Existing Dragon / White Mirror Wavespell), which also marked the first day of the Mystic Column. Just before a class, a sudden insight arrived—the vision of a board game built upon the 52-Year Destiny Castle. Within fifteen minutes, the core concept took shape. However, with no clear direction or resources to bring the idea into form, the project was temporarily set aside.

This remained dormant until April 23, 2024 (KIN 185 Red Electric Serpent / Blue Night Wavespell). On that day, Cana (KIN 218 White Planetary Mirror) entered my classroom and began studying the 13 Moon Synchronometer. She was a visual designer—and, as it soon became clear, the missing piece. On August 2, 2024 (KIN 26 White Cosmic World-Bridger / White Wizard Wavespell) I formally invited her to co-create this journey with me.

KIN 185 : Stephanie South / Red Queen

KIN 218 : The excavation date of Pacal Votan's tomb, June 18, 1952

KIN 26 : One of the 13 glyphs on the king's sarcophagus lid, symbolizing the Great Key

If you are a student of the 13 Moon Synchronometer, you may already recognize the synchronic patterns woven throughout this story. Was this game truly “created” by me? Through the unfolding of these cosmic synchronic codes, I have come to understand that Cana and I were simply the ones entrusted to bring this game into the world, so that humanity might enter the Zuvuya memory circuits and begin a dialogue across time and life. Through the messages carried by the cards, players can cultivate conscious self-awareness, activate the power of change, and embrace a more beautiful life journey.

On August 3, 2025, KIN 132 Yellow Lunar Human

/ Blue Monkey Wavespell (Day 12 of the Mystic Column / One of the 13 glyphs on the sarcophagus lid), I unexpectedly rediscovered a set of hand-drawn notes (as shown on the previous page). As I decoded them, awe filled my awareness. Perhaps there were not just two creators—but five:

- 1 KIN11 José Argüelles
- 2 KIN22 Lloydine / Bolon Ik
- 3 KIN185 Stephanie South / Red Queen

» The Call from Zuvuya

During the first playtest with the testing team, I discovered something remarkable: as the dice rolls to determine the starting year, I might return to my 18-year-old self, or leap forward to meet myself at age 54. As we continued to draw cards, the messages spoke directly to the present moment. At times, they triggered vivid life reviews of the past. At other moments, they invited me to imagine my future self. This cross-temporal dialogue between different stages of life is truly the most fascinating part of the game. As the designer, I must admit: before the first playtest, I had no idea the experience would unfold this way.

What is the deeper meaning behind this game?

The answer revealed itself on October 18, 2025(KIN 208 Yellow Cosmic Star), a signature representing rebirth after the 2012 "end of the world" prophecy. That night, the book Surfers of the Zuvuya: Tales of Interdimensional Travel, which should have been tucked away on a shelf, mysteriously appeared before me, as if calling for attention. Curiosity led me to open it again after five years. In that moment, I realized that the message within its pages (excerpted on Page 2) revealed the true purpose of this board game.

When we step into this synchronic journey through the game, we are actually entering the Zuvuya memory circuits, resonating in harmony with every stage of our lives — past, present, and future.

Acknowledgements and Gratitude

While the Universe may have orchestrated the perfect design, the manifestation and sharing of this game were made possible through collective collaboration. My deepest gratitude goes to my students — angelic companions sent by the Universe — each stepping into different roles and offering their wholehearted support. This is truly a co-creation between teacher and students.

I am deeply grateful to Rafeeka (KIN 15) for bringing the Law of Time into Asia. My heartfelt thanks also extend to the source teachers: Katarina Prokic (KIN 79), Ana Zikic (KIN 62), Annibal Lisandro Luporini Dowgaluk (KIN 34), and Jack Chang (KIN 113) for their profound teachings and guidance. I also want to thank the Law of Time Asia and the 3128 team for their immense support in promoting this game.

May more galactic family members travel through Zuvuya's interdimensional passage, return to the natural cycles of life, and resonate in harmony with their most beautiful selves.

Foreword

It is a joy to welcome this creation into the growing family of works inspired by the Law of Time and the 13 Moon Synchronometer. Time Traveler's 13 Moon Synchronic Journey is more than a board game—it is a living mandala of time. It invites reflection, synchronic awareness, and fresh dialogue across the stages of life.

At its heart lies a simple insight: Time is not only something we measure—it is something we experience and co-create. When we shift from artificial time to natural cycles, perception begins to transform. Patterns emerge. Memories reconnect. Synchronicities multiply. The past and future begin to speak to the present.

The 13 Moon Synchronometer is a harmonic structure rooted in the 13:20 frequency. It restores time as art and awakens deeper awareness.

Presenting this knowledge as a game returns it to its original spirit. While decoding the mathematics behind the Mayan calendar systems, José Argüelles sought ways to make the knowledge of galactic time accessible to all. In 1991, he developed a role-playing system to transmit these teachings through play. This work evolved into the Dreamspell—a game of consciousness designed to help “lost time travelers” reconnect with natural time and restore their memory.

The Dreamspell and the later Telektonon Prophecy of Pacal Votan presented these systems as games of prophecy and remembrance, bridging imagination and sacred timekeeping.

Time Traveler's 13 Moon Synchronic Journey carries this original spirit forward. It brings the Tzolkin, the Five Time Castles, and the 52-Year Destiny Castle into a new interactive form. Players journey through cycles of life, draw synchronic cards, and experience meaningful connections across past, present, and future. In this way, the game becomes a living bridge through time.

This project also reflects the spirit of collaboration and synchronicity. The bilingual Chinese–English format creates a bridge between worlds. It shows how the Law of Time continues to find new expressions across the planet. When we see our lives through synchronic time, we begin to recognize a deeper harmony.

May this creation inspire many people to rediscover natural time.

May it open the door to greater awareness and magical transformation.

And may all who play remember that time is an art, and each life is a unique masterpiece.

With appreciation and blessings to all who made this project possible.

Foreword

I believe this game will, in one way or another, touch and influence many people.

Within the playground of the game, we re-enter synchronicity with our past selves, breathing together within fields of creative possibility. In truth, there has always been a subtle connection between who we are now and who we once were. As former versions of ourselves resurface, we are given the opportunity—through greater maturity and gentleness—to meet them with compassion, allowing the emotional energies of the past to find their rightful place in the present moment.

Game Introduction

This board game is built around the 13 Moon Synchronicity Calendar, integrating its core elements: the Tzolkin, Wavespells, Galactic Tones, Solar Seals, Colors, the Five Time Castles, and the 52-Year Destiny Castle.

Through 333 synchronic cards, players explore the intersection of life journey, self-awareness, and Consciousness Frequency Index, engaging in a cross-time dialogue with different versions of themselves across their lifetime.

This is not just a game — it is a sacred dialogue with Time. It invites you to listen to your present self while receiving insights from your past and future selves. As you move through the Time Castles, you will begin to perceive the rhythm of your life, recognize repeating patterns. And through each card draw and action, you will uncover subconscious limits and inner blocks. You will learn how to turn awareness into conscious choice, unlocking the inner power and clarity needed to move forward.

The Meaning of Components

■ The 13 Moon Game Board: The Tzolkin Calendar → The Five Time Castles

The game board is designed by transforming the Tzolkin Calendar's matrix into the Five Time Castles. It consists of 260 spaces, sequentially numbered from KIN 1 to KIN 260.

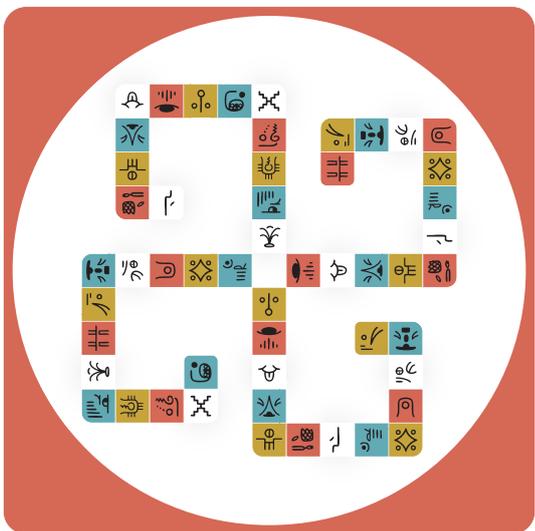

The Tzolkin Calendar

The Ancient Maya referred to the Tzolkin as the "Sacred Count." It is the perfect 13:20 matrix, representing a complete cycle of synchronic frequency. Each day is identified by a KIN, formed by the interaction of 13 Galactic Tones and 20 Solar Seals (13×20), creating 260 unique Tzolkin signatures, ranging from KIN 1 to KIN 260. Every 13 days form one Wavespell, resulting in 20 Wavespells in a full cycle (13×20).

The Time Castles

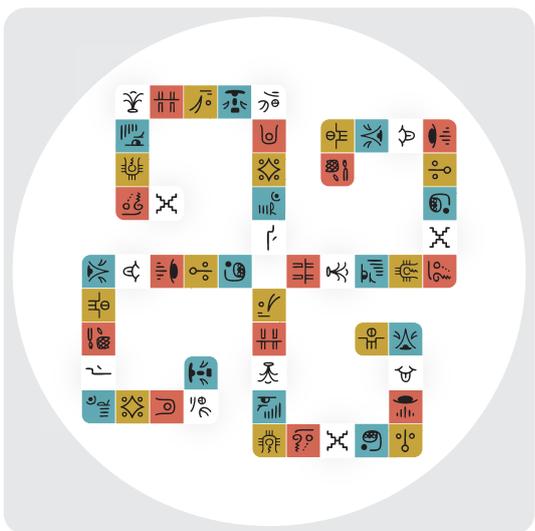

Each Time Castle follows a 52-day cycle, composed of four Wavespells ($13 \text{ days} \times 4$). Together, the five Castles form the complete 260-day Tzolkin cycle ($52 \text{ days} \times 5$). Each Castle has its own color, direction, and function, each carrying their own unique wisdom.

Player Tokens X 5 Colored Crystal Pillars

The game supports up to five players. Each player is represented by a Crystal Pillar token. There are five colors, one of each: Red, White, Blue, Yellow, and Green.

Game Dice X 2 Six-Sided Dice

When using one die	When using two dice
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Roll to determine the starting color zone at the beginning of the game • Roll to determine game scores • Roll to determine the number of spaces for Fast-Forward movement. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Roll at the start of the game to determine the starting age within the selected color zone • Roll to determine the number of spaces for normal movement

Game Cards × 333

The game includes a total of 333 cards.

The angel number 333 represents divine guidance, protection, and support, signifying that we are receiving assistance from the Universe and the angels, and are ready to enter a new phase and embrace new opportunities.

The number 333 can also be interpreted through KIN 73: Red Galactic Skywalker ($333 - 260 = 73$).

Symbolic Meaning

This game represents an unknown journey of exploration by a Time Traveler. As you travel along interstellar pathways, you move beyond the linear timeline of past, present, and future. Through the awareness gained along the journey, you receive messages from the Universe, angels, or your own soul.

The ultimate purpose of the game is to release unnecessary beliefs, carry forward empowering guidance, and step into a new milestone of life.

Composition of the 333 Cards

- 260 positions of the Tzolkin Calendar
- 52 positions of the Green Galactic Portals

- 20 positions of the Mystic Column
- 1 Hunab Ku

Card Color Meanings

Red	Exploring the Unknown
White	Inner Clarity
Blue	Transform and Advance
Yellow	Act and Achieve
Green	Manifest Abundance

Design of the 333 Game Card Messages

The messages on the 333 game cards are primarily crafted based on the 20 Solar Seals and 13 Galactic Tones, and are designed to facilitate dialogue across different dimensions of life experience.

Each card category invites reflection, awareness, and conscious interaction through the following themes:

Life Practice	Exploring life lessons
Gift Awakening	Revealing and awakening your innate talents
Yes or No	Examining how personal power is being used or withheld
Knowledge & Action	Observing the three levels of wisdom — Knowing, Understanding, and Practicing
Soul Searching	Dialogue guided by the missions of the 13 Galactic Tones
Becoming	Dialogue through the professional skills and archetypal expressions of the 20 Solar Seals
Magic Miracles	Dialogue through the wondrous and unexpected qualities of the 20 Solar Seals
Cosmic Messages	Encouraging messages inspired by the 20 Solar Seals

My Synchronicity Life Journey

Player Setup

Complete: 52-Year Destiny Castle of Your Earth Family

- The host uses the sample sheet to guide players through Steps ❶ to ❹ in order.
 - ❶ Fill in your personal information.
 - ❷ Add your signature color (color your primary Solar Seal)
 - ❸ Outline the borders of the four color zones.
 - ❹ Using your KIN code, locate your birth signature as Age 1, then continue filling ages 1-52 in sequence.
 - ❺ Determine the Starting Point of the Game

First roll: Determine the starting color zone

- Use 1 die
- Red → Red zone: 13-year (space) phase of Exploring the Unknown
- White → White zone: 13-year (space) phase of Inner Clarity
- Blue → Blue zone: 13-year (space) phase of Transform and Advance
- Yellow → Yellow zone: 13-year (space) phase of Act and Achieve

Second roll: Determine the specific year (space) within that color zone

- Use 2 dice
- Total 2 → Year (space) 2nd of the color zone to find your corresponding starting age
- Total 3 → Year (space) 3rd of the color zone to find your corresponding starting age
- Total 4-12 → Follow the same logic

Special Conditions

- If both dice show Red 2, start at Year (space) 1 of the color zone to find your corresponding starting age
- If both dice show Green 5, start at Year (space) 13 of the color zone to find your corresponding starting age

- ⑥ At your starting age, color the Solar Seal
- ⑦ Write down your Gregorian birth date
- ⑧ Current Journey — Starting Seal: draw and color the starting seal, and record the age and KIN code
- ⑨ Current Journey — Ending Seal: draw and color the next year's seal, and record the age and KIN code

Ready for the Journey

Facilitator

- Record each player's starting seal and ending seal in the Facilitator's Player Journey Log
- The game includes 3 rounds in total.

Players

- Shuffle the cards and select your crystal pillar.
- Find your starting KIN on the board and place your pillar on that space.

Beginner's Guide – Part 1 (Optional)

New to the 13 Moon Calendar? Choose either option below:

» Option 1: Follow the full instructions in the game manual

» Option 2: Quick Start

- Set a journey intention (what you want to see/realize in your current life stage)
- Start by placing your pillar on KIN 1.
- Focus mainly on the card messages and how they inspire self-reflection.

Journey Overview

Duration

- Estimated time: 3 hours, with 3 rounds
- Recommended: stop gameplay at around 2.5 hours, then proceed to scoring and sharing.

When the Game Ends

- The game ends when any one player completes Round 3, or
- The host may end the game at their discretion.

When to Advance to the Next Round

A player advances to the next round when they pass any ONE of the following:

- The Current Round Ending Seal (the next Year Seal in sequence)
- The player's Kin Kin Day (their personal Kin)
- The host may use the Facilitator's Player Journey Log to remind players when it's time to advance

Beginner's Guide – Part 2 (Optional)

New to the 13 Moon Calendar? Choose one way to set the journey length:

Duration

- Option 1: Follow the manual
- Option 2: Set a fixed 3-hours session and end when time is up
- Option 3: Play a full cycle from KIN 1 to KIN 260

The Journey Begins

Rolling Dice & Drawing Cards

- Starting from Player 1, players take turns to roll the dice and draw cards, recording everything on My Life Journey of Synchronicity.
- Roll two dice and move forward from your starting KIN by the sum of the dice.
- Draw a card based on the color of the space you land on:
 - Red Space → draw a Red Card
 - White Space → draw a White Card
 - Blue Space → draw a Blue Card
 - Yellow Space → draw a Yellow Card

Special spaces

☞ Green Border Spaces (52 total) :

Knowledge & Action

- Observing the three levels of wisdom — Knowing, Understanding, and Practicing
- Roll one die to determine the score.
- Roll 1 or 6 → Practice → +5 points
Roll 2 or 5 → Understand → +3 points
Roll 3 or 4 → Know → +0 points

Soul Searching

- Answer the question on the card
- Roll one die twice:
 - ① Roll 1: die result = Soul Satisfaction Score
 - ② Roll 2: fast-forward Steps = (Roll 2) × (Roll 1)

Becoming

- Gain a professional skill and its derived Solar Seal ability → +5 points
- Roll one die to determine fast-forward Steps = die result × 5

Magic Miracles

- Receive a miracle → +10 points
- Roll one die to determine fast-forward Steps = die result × 10

Cosmic Messages

Receive the inspiring power of the Universe.

Situation ① Card Symbol Color = Player's Symbol Color

A : If no other player matches the card's symbol color:

Drawing player → +5 points, keeps the card

B : If other players match the card's symbol color:

Drawing player → +10 points, keeps the card.

Each matching-color player → +5 points

Situation ② Card Symbol Color ≠ Player's Symbol Color

A : If no other player matches the card's symbol color:

Drawing player → +5 points, keeps the card

B : If other players match the card's symbol color:

Drawing player → +10 points

Give the card to one of the matching-color players (chosen by the drawing player), and the receiving player may take 1 card from the table.

Each matching-color player → +5 points

Final Scoring

■ Add up scores by card color (from “My Synchronicity Life Journey”)

- Green Total = (sum of Green card points) \times 10
- Red Total = (sum of Red card points) \times 10
- White Total = (sum of White card points) \times 10
- Blue Total = (sum of Blue card points) \times 10
- Yellow Total = (sum of Yellow card points) \times 10

Special rule:

☞ If a color's summed points are 0 or negative, that color's total becomes 0.

How to Use the Log Sheets

■ Coloring the Consciousness Frequency Index

- According to the total score of each color, color layers in this order (bottom to top)::
- Green → Red → White → Blue → Yellow
- Scores are cumulative (each layer adds onto the previous total).
- For the White layer, you may choose any clearly visible color to represent white.
- Skip any color with 0 points.
- Use your final cumulative score to identify your Development Stage on the left side of the chart.

■ Example

- Green (300) + Red (150) + White (100) + Blue (0) + Yellow (200)
- Layer 1 (Green): color from 0 → 300
- Layer 2 (Red): add 150; color from 300 to 450.
- Layer 3 (White): add 100; color from 450 to 550.
- Layer 4 (Blue): 0 points; skip (remain at 550).
- Layer 5 (Yellow): add 200; color from 550 to 750.
- Total = 750 → Maturity Stage
- The Maturity Stage symbolizes being grounded and resilient, representing a spirit tempered by experience , and growing stronger over time.

The End is Just the Beginning

■ Group Sharing

- The host invites players to share insights from the journey.
- The host offers feedback based on observations from the game.

■ Closure

Complete the journey with a final mindful action (choose one or both):

- Invite players to note the KIN code and Solar Seal where their journey ended.
- Each player draws one Green Card as their final Cosmic Message.

■ A New Beginning

During this journey, your memory circuits begin to awaken. With your My Synchronicity Life Journey record, the insights you gained will continue guiding you into deeper awareness, until you are ready to begin your next chapter.
